In my last conversation they mentioned that capacity issue will be resolved. If 5.1.2b needs to be placed, they will make it happen (political pressure helped with this decision I guess.

Hi 5.1.2e

What I meant was vaccine types, so when for instance Janssen and novovax might come in at some point. Have not looked at the problem you mention now. Good to know, and I should also need to check whether the new logistics model accounts for that.

Best regards,
