Dear 5.1.2.e,

Thanks again for meeting with us the other day!
Hope you are doing well in these crazy times.

COVID-19 is actually why I am also reaching out.
I have read the Twitter blogposts about the topic, but we would be very interested in any NL related updates.
I'm assuming you now also have contact with the Ministry of Health, but as the coordination team for disinfo, we are also keeping in touch with all the social media platforms.

There isn't a lot of disinformation on the topic that has a great impact in NL, but in case this happens it would be good to know what the best way to reach Twitter is.
I believe two of my colleagues (5.1.2.e and 5.1.2.e) still have access to the Twitter 'reporting portal'.
Is this the best way to signal something that we believe needs Twitter's attention or is it also a good idea to give you a call or something like that?

Furthermore, besides mis/disinformation we were wondering if Twitter is seeing any bot/coordinated activity around COVID-19.
This might be helpful for our problems analyses.

All the best,

5.1.2.e
