

reduce allocations going forward to be able to support those countries severely impacted by the ongoing and rising pandemic in the other continents as illustrated below.

Covid-19 cases compared by continent

Number of cases per day, seven-day rolling average

Oceania cases excluded as too low to register on scale

Source: ECDC and national public health agencies, data up to 17 July

This means a reduction at your site from 5.1.1c tests every two weeks, which equates to around 10 tests less per day, with immediate effect, starting from week 31 (27-31 July) onwards.

We sincerely apologise for the disruption this will cause and continue to work towards increasing our capacity to be able to supply all of our assays at the levels that are required.

We would like to thank you for your trust and patience at this time.
