TO: NATIONAL CONTACT POINTS UNDER THE BIOLOGICAL WEAPONS CONVENTION

Dear Colleagues,

Thank you for the positive feedback received on the brief e-mails that we sent the past two weeks. Based on that feedback, please find below a third compilation of links and resources which may be useful to you in your work during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Once again, we have been provided with many of these links by experts and national institutions suggesting that they may be of use to you, so we are passing them on in line with our information-sharing mandate. All with the usual caveats that sharing this information does not imply endorsement. The ISU is not responsible for the content of third party websites.

Best wishes,
