Hoi allen,

Ter info, bijgaand slides van een overleg met MARIN en UMCG afgelopen week, met betrekking tot het opzetten van een meerjarig onderzoeksprogramma over ventilatie en SARS-CoV-2 aerosoloverdracht. Ze werken nu de ideeën uit en gaan daarna financiering zoeken.

Aan ons de vraag hoe we betrokken zouden willen zijn in de fast track (~18 maanden) en long track (~4 jaar).

[redacted] heeft al eerder met hen gesproken en reeds aangegeven dat we op korte termijn erg druk zijn en met name een adviserende rol zouden kunnen nemen.

Groet,

[redacted]

Hello [redacted]

Many thanks for the good discussions and feedback. As promised see attached the presentation slides.

As already mentioned, please already start to think which activities shall fit in the "fast track" and in the long term research track of the project; and, on the RIVM side, please discuss internally where you would like to be involved within the project.

Thanks again and talk to you again on Tuesday at the research team meeting.

Have a good weekend,

Best regards

Hello [redacted] 5.1.2e

As indicated in the invitation below, it would be helpful to have a chat with you before the general research team meeting to explain you the progress that we had so far and get your feedback.
Do you have any availability this week (better) or eventually next Monday?
Thanks

Best regards

Dear research partners,

Despite the holiday period there has been quite some progress in putting together a strong program and consortium. Since our last meeting we welcomed in the research team the University of Amsterdam, the RIVM and TU Delft. Furthermore we have been in contact with several business partners with generally very positive feedback. We are now getting the first letters of intent.

It is time for another research team meeting where we will update you on the latest developments, give a chance to the new partners to introduce themselves and set up an action plan. This is particularly important as shortly after we will discuss with the Ministerie van Economische Zaken on the funding for this program. I hope you will be able to make it in this proposed time slot.

In view of time, before this meeting we would like to discuss separately with each research partner in order to be able to go into more details for each of the projects. Please let us know in a separate email your availability in week 36 for an ~1 hour videocall.

The detailed agenda for this meeting and the latest version of the research proposal will follow. Please feel free to extend this invitation to any of your colleagues that I may have forgotten.

Thanks for your help

Best regards
