

Ireland's Covid-19 cases surge

The country recorded the world's highest infection rate last week, driven by the presence of the more transmissible UK variant along with household mixing over the holidays.

