

Dagelijkse update positieve testen coronavirus

5-3-2020

44 new patients, a total of 82 positive tests

Since the last update, RIVM National Institute for Public Health and the Environment received reports of 44 new patients. The total number of positive tests has risen to 82. Sixty-nine patients were infected abroad or are contacts of confirmed patients. From the new patients, two have been hospitalised. The other new patients are under home isolation.

6-3-2020

Since the last update, RIVM National Institute for Public Health and the Environment received reports of 46 new patients. The total number of positive tests has risen to 128, of whom 1 patient has died. 101 patients were infected abroad or are contacts of confirmed patients. From the new patients, 5 have been hospitalised. The other new patients are under home isolation.