5.1.2e

Dear colleagues,

Further to our discussions last month, we are keen to meet with you again to discuss the possibilities for collating contact tracing data from a few European countries. There is an enormous interest in such analysis and whilst we understand public health teams are under considerable pressure across Europe right now we would like to assess with you what we may be possible in the coming weeks.

We have scheduled a TEAMS call for this meeting for this Friday at 3pm CET (2pm GMT) (please click on link below to join the meeting).

Please find enclosed the notes from the last meeting and the revised version of the data analysis protocol.

With best wishes,

5.1.2e, on behalf of the ECDC and WHO Europe contact tracing teams
