

after successful legal examination. In a first step, the RKI will release the app for some European countries. These are: Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Austria, Czech Republic, Poland, Denmark, Romania and Bulgaria. It may still take a few hours to a few days until the app is available for the individual countries. We kindly ask you for your patience.

More countries are currently being checked and will be released in the App Stores step by step. The Robert Koch-Institute asks for your understanding that it cannot provide any information on specific countries and the status of their release during the ongoing review process.

Onderwerp: RE: Input Topkeuze overleg: regionale restricties app stores

Dank!

Voorafgaand: heeft Duitsland wel of niet een punt qua toepasselijkheid van wetgeving?

Onderwerp: Input Topkeuze overleg: regionale restricties app stores

Top keuze overleg over: Moet de app gepubliceerd worden op alleen de Nederlandse App Store, of alle App Stores zonder regionale restricties.
