Dear 5.1.2e

First apologies for the direct approach! Being the Chief Data Officer at RIVM, my guess is that you are the right contact person to touch base with on this topic that can be of interest to RIVM in these unusual times.

Allow me to bring to your attention the attached presentation of what Conduent is doing to help public health agencies around the globe in the fight against the spread of COVID-19.

Please to let us know if you or RVIM is interested in receiving further information or online demo.

Thank you and best regards,

5.1.2e
