Dear 5.1.2e

We would like to opt for the second option where we first pay the outstanding invoices and then forward into a creditpayment/invoice. This works best for our administration.

Kind regards,

5.1.2e

Dear 5.1.2e

I'm pleased to confirm that we have received payment of more than 5.1.1c clearing main portion of our overdue invoices. The outstanding balance still due is now reduced to 5.1.1c. Since a part of this overview is related to credit amounts (due to downpayment balances for which the related invoice was paid in full), we would like to request you to pay us only the total net balance due of 5.1.1c. If this is not feasible for you, we can also propose to refund you the credits after receipt of your net payment of our 2 remaining invoices 5.1.2f.

Please find herewith again our statement of account with you and looking forward to receive final payment within the next 2 weeks.

With best regards,

5.1.2e
